

Interreg

North-West Europe

BIOWILL

European Regional Development Fund

THEMATIC PRIORITY:

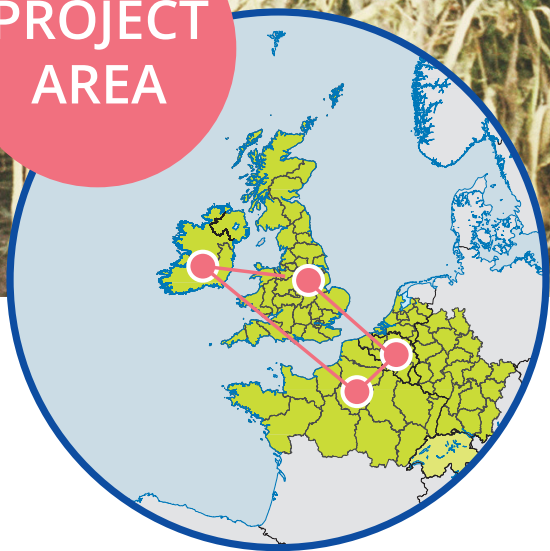

INNOVATION

Photo taken by Ken Stott - Long Ashton Research Station

PROJECT AREA

Focusing on Integrated “Zero Waste” Biorefinery utilising all fractions of Willow feedstock for the production of high to medium based Bio-Chemicals/Materials, Renewable Energy in the form of Bio Methane production and Natural Fertilisers

Total budget received from Interreg North-West Europe (2019-2022):

€2.24 million

Total project budget:
€3.73 million

www.nweurope.eu