

Nottingham Business School

Research Capabilities and Aspirations

European Business Schools
Ranking 2018

NBS: A Progressive Agenda

Existing strengths:

Teaching, learning, student experience

Aspirations:

Match with research engagement, performance

NBS Research Structures

Five Departments

Economics, Management, Finance and Accounting, Marketing, HRM

Three Centres

Economics, Policy, Public Management (CEPPM)

Responsible and Sustainable Business Lab (RSBLab)

People, Work and Organisational Practice (CPWOP)

Six groups

Behavioural Science; International Business, Decisions and Strategies; Marketing and Consumer Affairs; Finance and Accounting; Innovation, Digitisation, Entrepreneurship and Operations; Work, Informalisation and Place

Building Research Power

Investment in high-level talent

Enhanced research engagement

Comprehensive research support infrastructure:

New behavioural science laboratory; step change in database provision; new study leave scheme; enhanced seedcorn and opportunity funds; new mentoring scheme; enhanced bid development support; international visibility; new PhD training programme, enhanced contributions to wider academy.....

REAMIT: an exemplar

Collaborative: academic and practice

Multi-disciplinary

International

Strategically important

Institutionally-aligned

Measurable impacts

Contact?

Research ideas?

Relevant skills?

Shared research agendas?

Collaborative funding bids?

alistair.bruce@ntu.ac.uk